CROWN PROSECUTORS

The Criminal Prosecutions Branch provides for the prosecution of criminal offences in the judicial districts of Manitoba, including:

- prosecution of provincial, Criminal Code and some federal offences,
- young offenders prosecutions under The Young Offenders Act (a federal statute), and
- special prosecutions related to particularly difficult cases involving commercial crime and organized crime.

There has been increased pressure on prosecutions due both to increasing numbers of cases and increasing complexity of some cases. This is expected to continue in the immediate future and can only be dealt with through greater productivity, or additional resources.

The more legal approach to youth crime taken by the new Young offenders Act will result in increased work for youth prosecutions, but may result in decreases in other areas of the youth justice system.

The workload for both the Chief Medical Examiner and the Board of Review have increased, but at manageable rates.

Each of the six programs operates under one particular statute, from which each of their names is derived. Numerous other statutes are involved in the operation of each program.

The specific objective of each program is to fulfill its statutory mandate.

More generally, the objective of the Land Titles Office and Personal Property Registry is to provide a solid base for common commercial transactions by ensuring security of title.

The objective of the other four programs is to provide legal services for people who would otherwise not have access to them. In doing so, these programs fulfill the expressed values of society and governments, including Canada's international obligations under such documents as the United Nations' Declaration of Human Rights, and The Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

It is an objective of each program to fulfill its mandate in an efficient and cost effective manner.
